To General Haldimand from D. Claus. 157
(Copy)

Montreal, 11th Oct. 1779.

Sir:

The St. Regis and Lake of Two Mountain Indians, descendants of the Onondago Nation, who joined the Mohawks upon the late scout to the Mohawk River arrived here last Saturday and came to me with their prisoners, not having passed the Mohawk Village to receive my directions to repair to ^{Col.} Campbell. I acquainted him of it and he sent for them and settled matters with them except a young Onondago chief who came this summer from his Nation and joined the party-being an acquaintance of mine stayed with me and delivered one of the prisoners, which he took, and I shall ^{sent} ~~escort~~ him to the rest of Col Campbell's prisoners as they would choose to keep together being neighbors. I can't ^{learn} ~~hear~~ any farther intelligence than what I gave Your Excellency in my last.

Herewith I have enclosed my acct current since my return from ~~St. Lawrence~~ in autumn 1777, to 24 June last which accts I have likewise transmitted to Col Johnson to insert them in his Genl acct agreeable to Yr. Excellency's orders to me.

I have the honour to be, Sir,
Yours truly, Excellency's oc.
(Sgd) D. Claus.

His Excellency,
Gen Haldimand.
