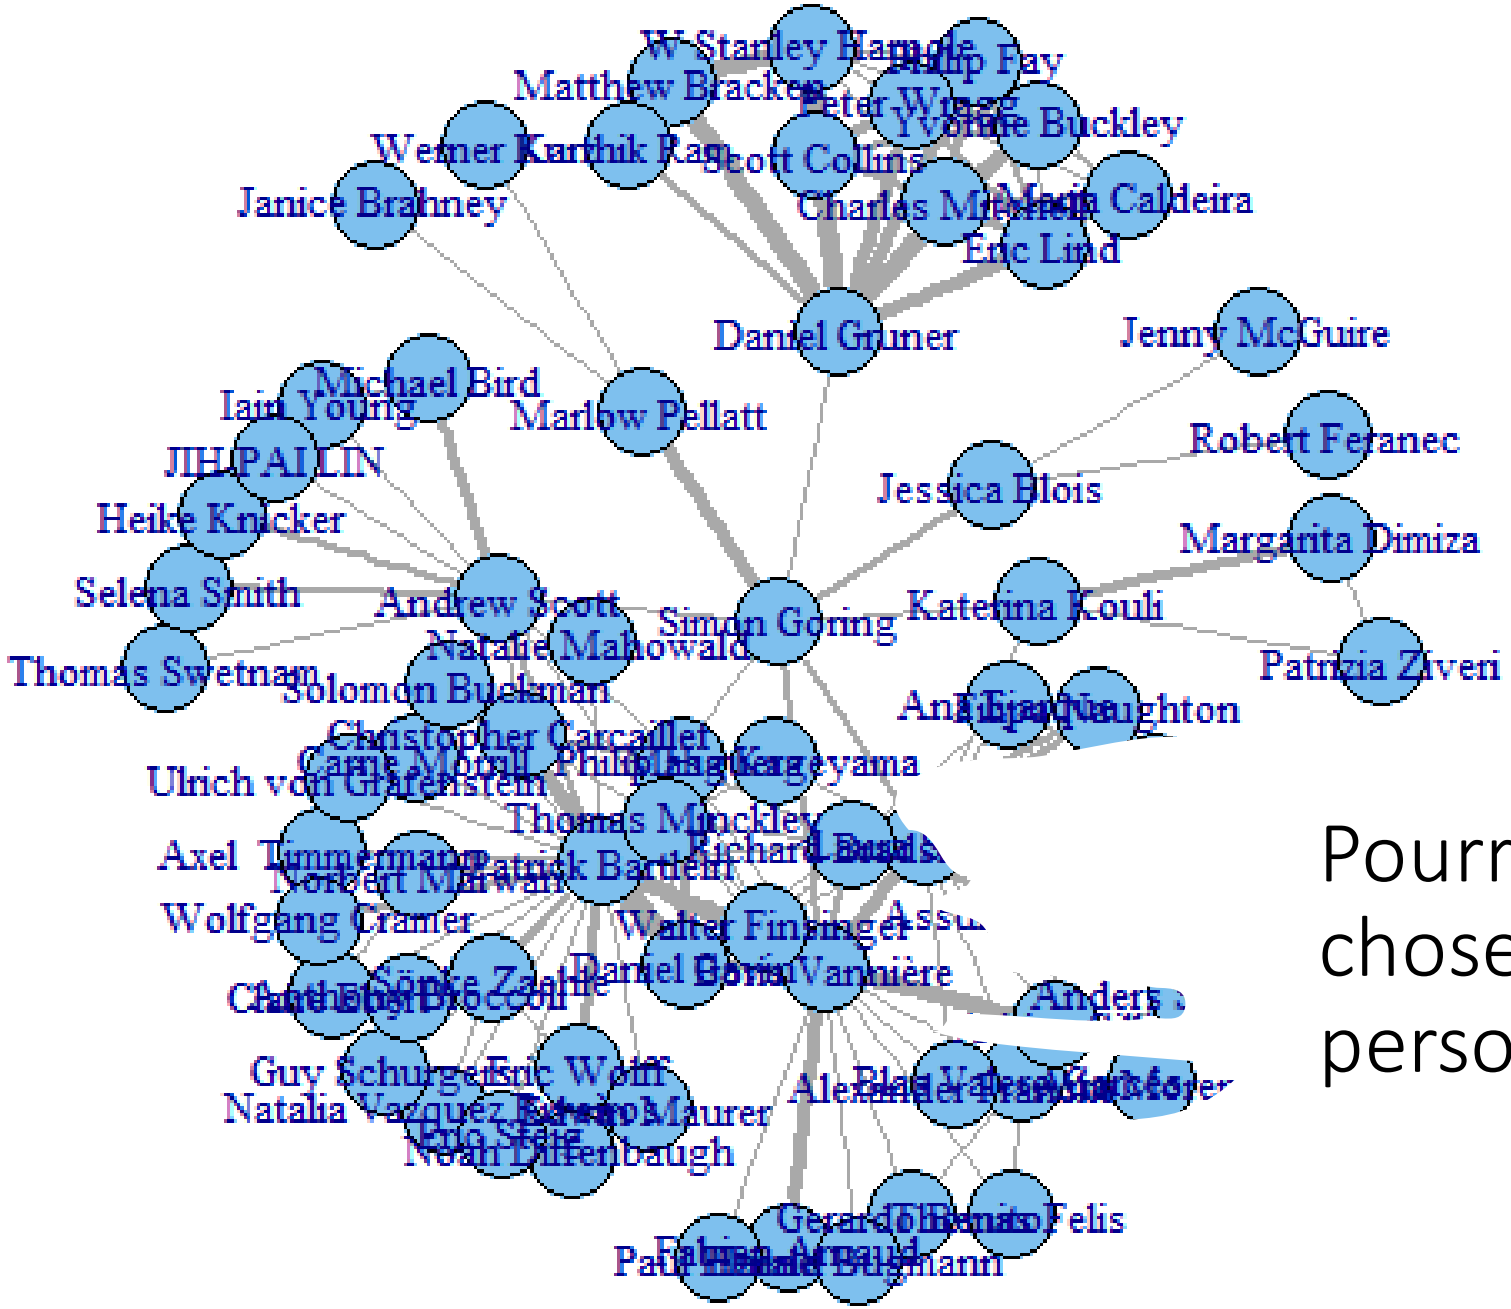
LE JUGE ARMSTRONG, DE SOREL,
Récemment nommé Juge Impérial de l'Ile Ste. Lucie.

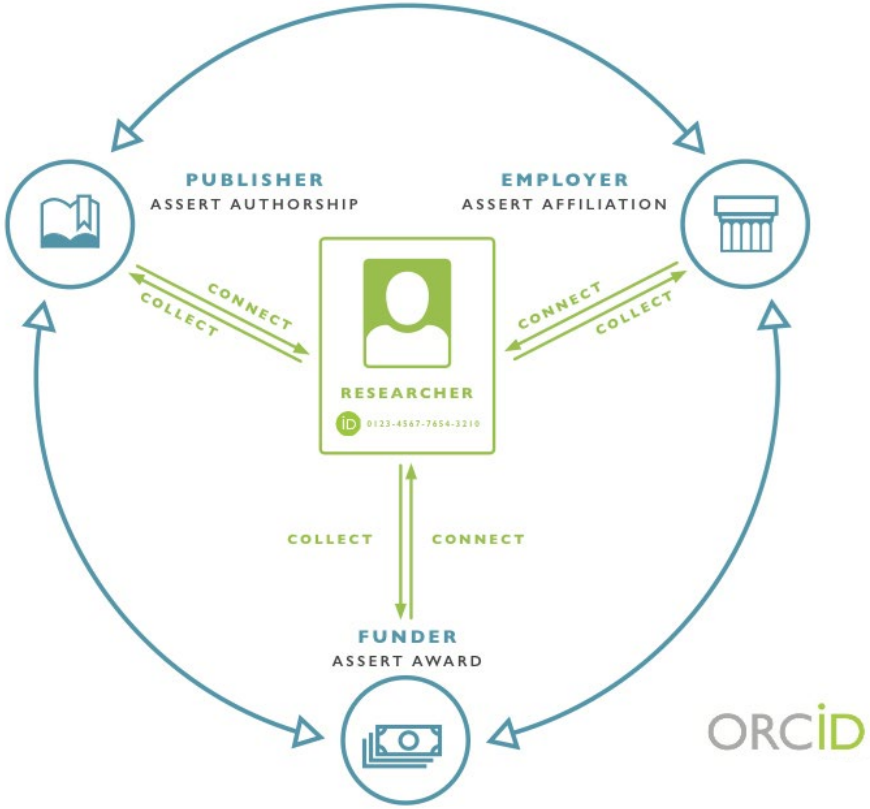
Trois James Armstrong

- Quel James Armstrong a travaillé pour le ministère des Affaires indiennes ?
- Ce n'était probablement pas le fabricant des poêles.

Une personne, plusieurs noms

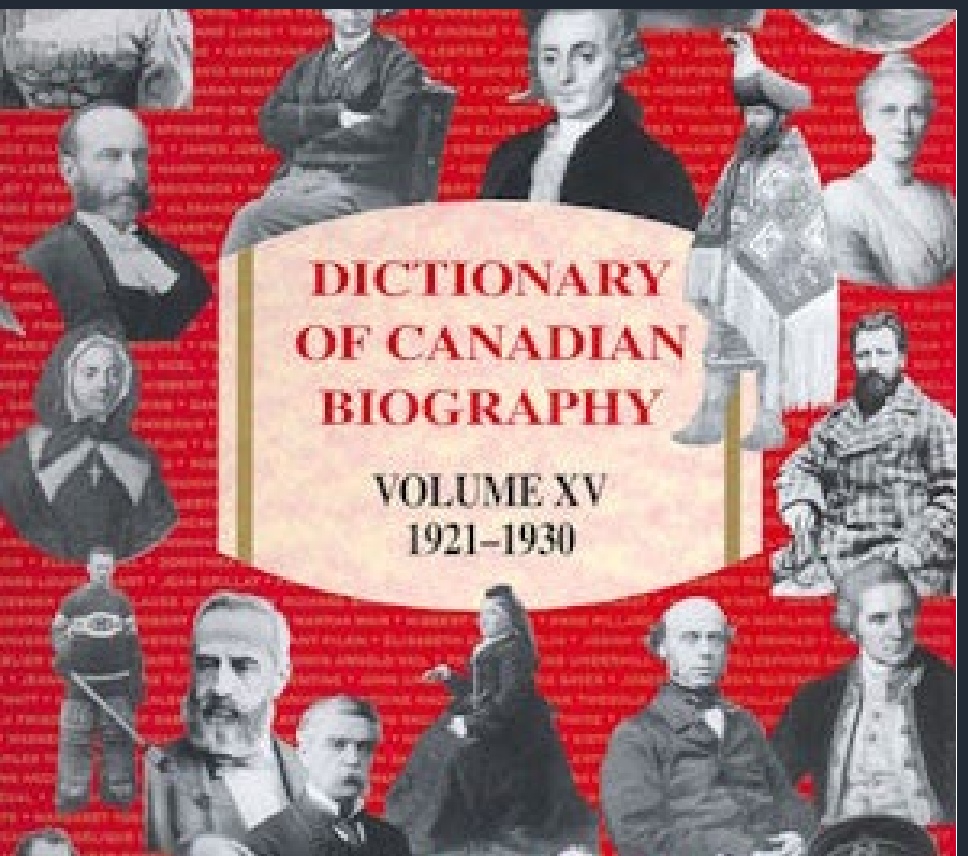
- Esther Brandeau ou Jacques La Fargue
- Thayendanegea, Thayendanegen, Thayeadanegea, Joseph Thayendanegea, ou Joseph Brant
- Félicité Angers ou Laure Conan
- Hilda Doris Buck ou Doris Hilda Anderson



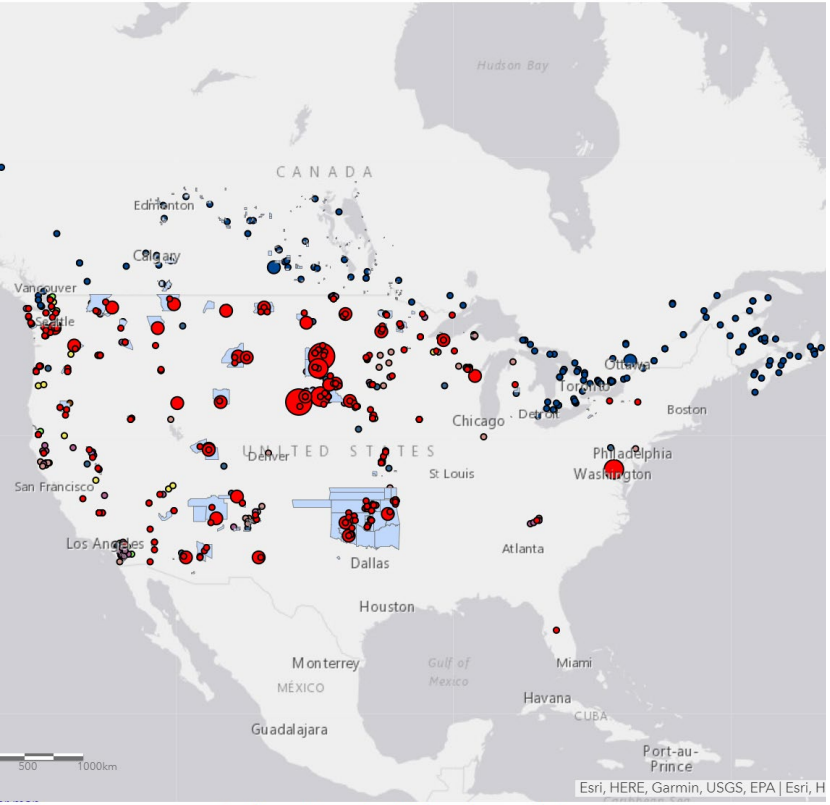


Pourrions-nous créer quelque chose comme ORCID pour les personnes historiques ?

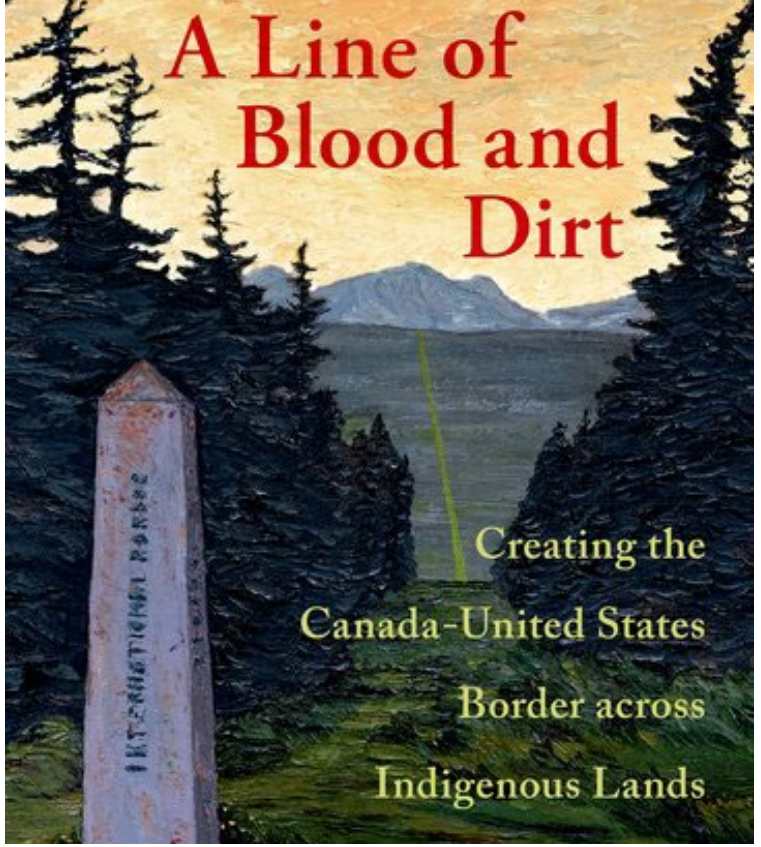
Par où commencer ?



- Dictionnaire biographique du Canada
- Le projet a débuté en 1959
- Plus de 8000 biographies publiées en français et en anglais
- Axé sur les hommes d'élite d'origine européenne, il s'efforce de corriger cet héritage.
- Planification du lancement d'une nouvelle version du site web en 2024



Indian Agents, Schools, and Reserves



Données sur les employés du département des affaires indiennes de Ben Hoy

- Hoy a créé une base de données sur les lieux de travail des employés du ministère des Affaires indiennes à la fin du 19th et au début du 20th siècles.
- La base de données comprend des informations biographiques limitées : noms, profession, lieu et années d'emploi à la DIA.
- Ces personnes et leur correspondance constituent une partie importante du dossier historique du colonialisme au Canada.
- Possibilité de tester la création de PID pour des personnes n'ayant pas de biographies complètes.

Objectifs et principes clés

1

Commencez par rapprocher les données des PID existants.

2

3

Éviter de créer une certitude à partir d'une incertitude lors de l'analyse d'un texte en points de données

4

Éviter de répéter l'utilisation de termes offensants dans des documents de référence datés.

Propriétés identifiables

- Noms
- Professions
- Date/lieu de naissance
- Liens familiaux
- Date/lieu du décès

SHADD, ALFRED SCHMITZ, instituteur, médecin, journaliste, homme politique et fonctionnaire, né en 1870 dans le canton de Raleigh, Ontario, fils de Garrison Shadd et de Harriet Poindexter ; il épousa à Melfort, Saskatchewan, Jeanette Simpson, et ils eurent une fille et un fils ; décédé le 9 mars 1915 à Winnipeg.

Alfred Schmitz Shadd était le petit-fils et le neveu de deux illustres militants de la communauté noire de l'Ontario, Abraham Doras Shadd et Mary Ann Camberton Shadd*. Il reçut d'abord une formation d'instituteur à Toronto et enseigna au moins un an à Chatham, à l'école pour Noirs où il avait étudié. Il entreprit ensuite des études de médecine à la University of Toronto, mais, faute d'argent, il les abandonna en 1896 et accepta un poste d'instituteur à Kinistino, dans la future province de la

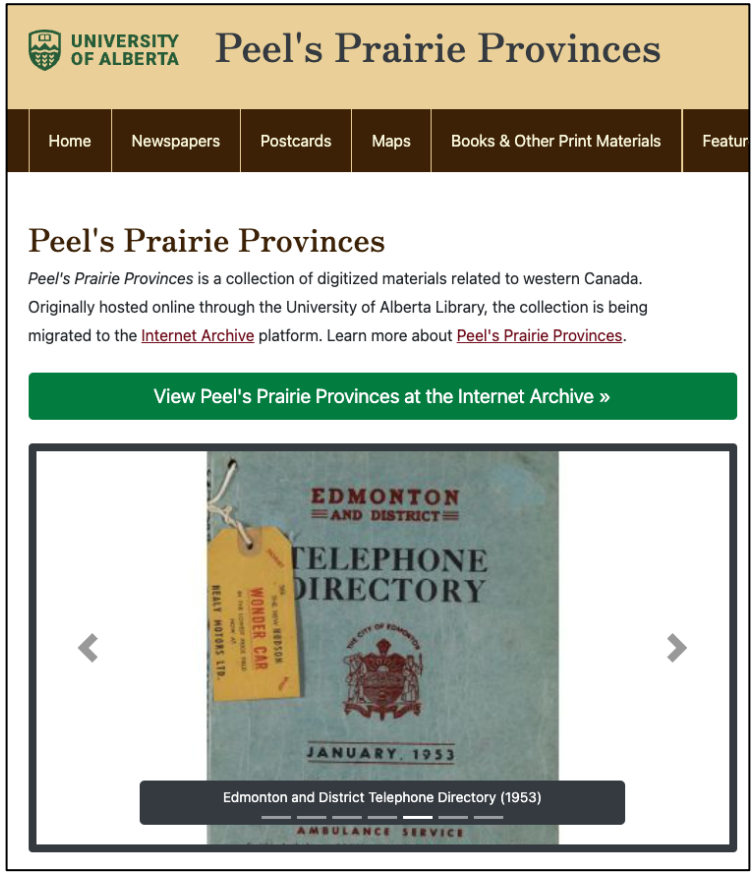
Prochaines étapes



- Ajouter les données de Peel sur les provinces des Prairies
- Consulter et affiner les données
  - Comment pouvons-nous le rendre plus utile ?
  - Faut-il élargir le modèle ?
  - Créer des étiquettes bilingues pour les termes de vocabulaire
- Amélioration des NID pour les personnes réduites au silence dans les archives
  - Personnes non nommées (par exemple, guides, épouses)
  - Personnes nommées qui n'ont pas leur propre entrée
- Consulter sur l'inclusion et la décolonisation
  - Noms, lieux, professions, etc.
